

Oats & Honey is owned and operated by three sisters, Alex, Clover, and Sam. Our doors opened in the historic and charming Village of Arroyo Grande in the spring of 2020. This is the first all vegan bakery in Arroyo Grande and we only use fresh local ingredients to create a daily assortment of sweet and savory baked goods to enjoy in store or at home.

OUR MENU
CHANGES DAILY!

The menu changes everyday but signature items like fresh baked bread, buns, and vegan butter are available daily for everyone's grocery needs. Beyond the daily pastry window, Oats & Honey has an easy in store, by phone, or online ordering system to bake specialty cakes, pies, and treats great for any occasion. Catering options are available for private events providing beautiful and delicious three course meals anywhere on the central coast. Oats & Honey is a warm farm to table bakery providing all the comforts of home without the use of animals or their byproducts. Here at Oats & Honey the bakers, local farmers, and our neighbors are family.
